10.8 Assembly

- a) Public schools may not violate the religious freedom of learners and educators by imposing religious uniformity on a religiously diverse school community in school assemblies.

- b) Learners and staff who are not comfortable with the religious part of the assembly are free to decide whether they wish to attend that part of the assembly or not.
- c) Learners will be excused after a written request is received from parents.
- d) Learners who are excused from religious practices will be accommodated as follows:
  - i. If they cannot attend religious practices, then they are allowed to sit in an allocated classroom.
- e) The school assembly will consist of reading of universal prayers, songs of praise or a short prayer. This will take place on an equitable basis.
- f) Assemblies should be used as forums for celebrating religious and cultural diversity, in keeping with the values of the Constitution.
- g) If religious materials are used at assembly, they should preferably be presented in the framework outlined for Religion Education, that is, as an educational experience rather than a religious ceremony.

10.9 Closure of School

- a) No learner or educator may be absent from school during the school day without permission.
- b) Early closure of the school to attend a religious service may be permitted, provided it is within regulated contact time and is approved by the District Director.
- c) Where a religious holiday/festival will result in large numbers of learners and educators being absent from school on a particular day, the school may consider closing for that specific day.
- d) The school must apply through the District Director to get permission to close the school for that specific day.
- e) Application for closure should reflect wide and representative consultation with the parent community. The request should include the details of how the school will make-up for the lost time resulting from the celebration of a religious holiday/festival..

- f) If consultation does not result in consensus regarding the closure of the school, then the procedures in respect of withdrawal of individual learners from the school by their parents will apply.
- g) The school must obtain written approval from the Head of Department of the Gauteng Department of Education well in advance.
- h) Granting of permission for school closure will only be considered if the total number of school days for the year is not reduced.

10.10 Religious attire and symbols

- a) The use of religious symbols is acceptable, provided they are used as examples of religious or cultural heritage and/or used as teaching aids in the classroom.
- b) The school should not single out an attire of a particular religion, for prohibition or regulation, provided the attire does not symbolise practices that are in conflict with the Constitution. This includes crosses or crucifixes, hats/topees and head scarves, yarmulkes, dreadlocks, nose rings etc.
- c) Learners may wear religious attire or symbols, provided they apply to the school and provide evidence to the principal regarding the religious significance of the attire and/or symbols.
